AEA General Assembly & International Conference 2020

Conference Theme

LEADING FORWARD IN THE DECADE OF DISCIPLE-MAKING

Introduction

November 2019, we have witnessed the work of the Holy Spirit in the World Evangelical Alliance General Assembly, moving leaders of evangelical churches around the globe to recommit into the holistic disciple making season. This is an invitation for every leader of the church to come into a new era (decade) of disciple making and intergenerational leadership across nations and regions, including the largest continent in the world, Asia.

As an act of commitment to this new season, we will invest our time and hearts in AEA General Assembly and International Conference 2020. Together, we will develop strategic action plans that fit within Asian contexts, that reflect the passion and intentionality to implement the new mindset of intergenerational leadership. We will be inspired and energized to execute actions and efforts required across regions, commissions, networks and other spheres of influence to have leaders rise up from every generation.

Purpose / Outcome

The AEA GA is meant to be a follow up for Asian church to enter into the new decade of Holistic Disciple Making and Intergenerational Leadership.

The goals of the General Assembly:

1. AEA Leaders at the regional and national level championing a new decade of disciple making:
  - a. Across regions, commissions, networks and local ministries, there are documented work models of effective holistic disciple making.
  - b. Across regions, commissions, networks and local ministries, there are mission breakthroughs as a result of the global focus and priority on intergenerational and holistic disciple making.
2. AEA is championing the development of healthy intergenerational leadership culture
  - a. AEA Structures at Regional and National levels reflect the intergenerational leadership model and culture.
  - b. Younger AEA leaders are emerging at Regional and National levels, who are, in turn also providing mentorship for their next generation.
  - c. Older AEA leaders are actively guiding, modelling and mentoring the emerging leaders, ushering them in the new season of leadership for the regional alliance.
